HOW FLEMISH CITIES AND VENUES

MAKE YOUR CONFERENCE A SUCCESS

VISITFLANDERS

FLANDERS OFFERS EVERYTHING YOU FIND IMPORTANT

BY EVELYNE BARDYN
Head of Convention Bureau
VISITFLANDERS
Convention Bureau

Recently, a large-scale survey took place, polling the needs of associations. The survey asked them what they found important when choosing a location for their conference.

Topping the list was accessibility. The presence of local expertise was a close second. And the venue's assets came third.

In Flanders, we were delighted with the results of this survey. After all, our region excels on all these points.

For example, Flanders, the northern region of Belgium, is very easy to reach. Not only by plane, from every corner of the world, but also by train. In an hour and a half, you can travel to Brussels from Paris, London or Amsterdam by rail. Even Frankfurt and Berlin are just a few hours away.

In 1.5 hours, you can travel to Brussels from Paris, London or Amsterdam by rail.

Experts are also present in great numbers, in 11 forward-looking sectors. Together with entrepreneurs, policy makers and local residents, they form a rock-solid support base for your conference. This ensures that almost the entire society in Flanders is involved in your organization.

This offers your association two crucial advantages. First, your delegates will feel welcome. And second, all factors are present to create a legacy with your conference: a lasting positive impact - not only for your association and your field, but for society itself. Adding value to people's lives – that's the greatest result you can achieve with your conference, isn't it?

Finally, there is the range of suitable venues. That's a box you can tick in Flanders too, thanks to the unique network of Flanders Heritage Venues. These conference venues are often located in beautiful heritage sites, have every state-of-the-art facility and are situated in the heart of the historic cities of which Flanders is so proud.

In this e-book, we introduce the Flemish cities and the Flanders Heritage Venues to you. You will notice immediately that with your choice of Flanders, you will welcome your delegates in a beautiful setting for a conference that will be remembered for a long time.

In the name of all the staff at VISITFLANDERS Convention Bureau, I already extend a warm welcome to your association, your conference and your delegates.

OF COURSE, YOUR CONFERENCE IN FLANDERS IS ALSO SUSTAINABLE.

Flanders places a high priority on sustainability and you'll notice that in the conference you organize here. Our region is actively committed to avoiding waste. We provide all the necessary technology to organize your conference hybrid. And many venues cater exclusively with local products.

Moreover, a number of our Flanders Heritage Venues have been awarded the famous Green Key certificate, the leading standard for excellence in the field of environmental responsibility and sustainable operation within the tourism industry.

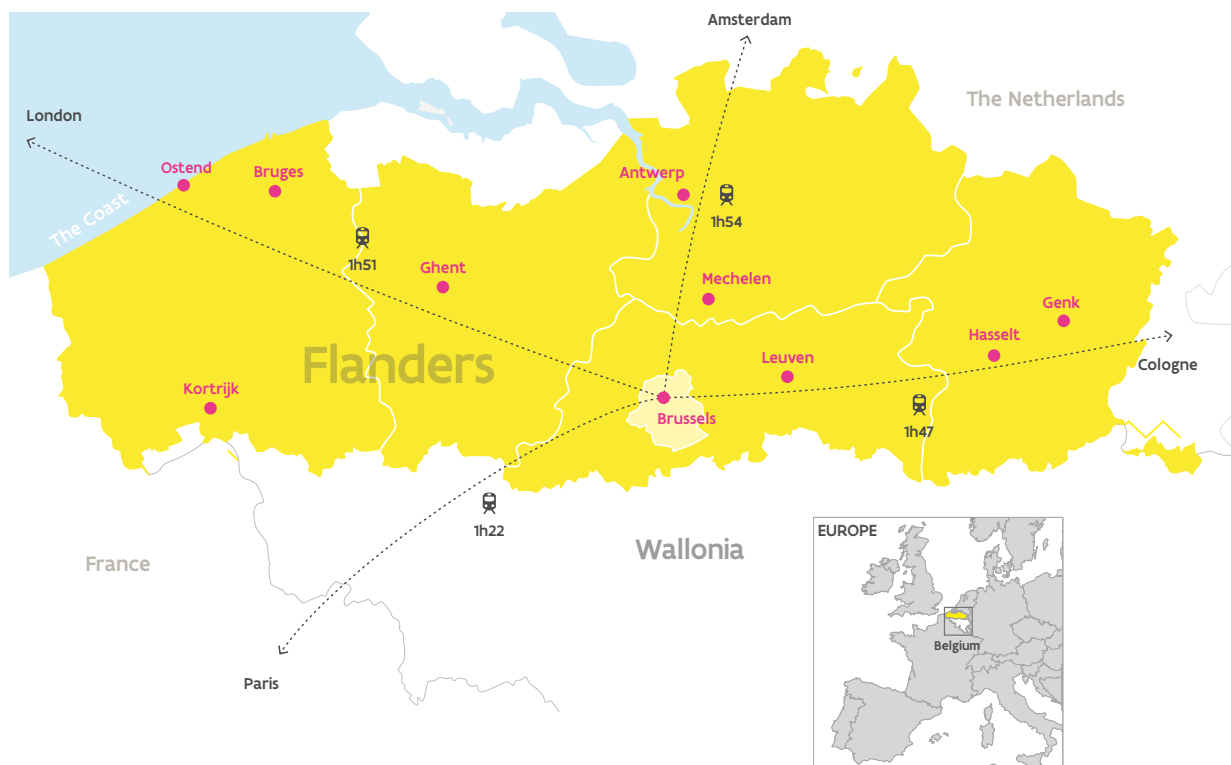

Flanders wants 80% of Flanders Heritage Venues to be Green Key certified by 2035. In the meantime, that ambitious goal might have to be adjusted, as it seems that the quota will be met much earlier...

You can read more about these remarkable venues starting on page 28.

SMALL CITIES, GREAT EXPERIENCES

WHAT MAKES FLEMISH CITIES SUCH A GREAT LOCATION FOR YOUR CONFERENCE?

Small cities, great experiences. That perfectly sums up the experience of a Flemish city. There is much to experience in each of the cities, while these experiences are barely a stone's throw from each other. In this regard, the Flemish cities differ thoroughly from cities such as London and Paris, where distances are considerably greater. And despite their proximity to each other and their common history, each city has its own DNA and charm.

85% of all associations organizing a conference in Flemish cities are very satisfied. This high figure is the result of a number of unique assets, which we would like to list for you.

1 YOUR DELEGATES ARE IMPRESSED BY THE RICH CULTURAL OFFERINGS.

Flemish cities are centuries old and were among the richest in Europe during the Middle Ages. Their eventful history translates into unique architecture and a magnificent heritage.

Moreover, the strong cultural offer is not limited to the museums, but is also present in activities such as the theater and other performing arts. This assures your delegates a fascinating social program. You can read more about this on the following pages, where the cities introduce themselves to you.

2 YOUR DELEGATES WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO FORGE STRONG BONDS WITH EACH OTHER.

A successful conference is all about connecting. The Flemish cities lend themselves perfectly to this. From your conference venue via the hotels and restaurants to the social program: everything is within walking distance. This invites your delegates to do some sightseeing together or to go out for a meal or a drink. This is how strong ties are forged and the best collaborations can arise.

3 YOUR CONFERENCE REAPS THE BENEFITS OF A STRONG LINK TO FLEMISH UNIVERSITIES.

Flemish universities enjoy world fame. Several of them hold a permanent place in the world's top 100. These universities do not remain anchored in their own city, but have branches in different cities all over Flanders. As a result, experts in your field are present in every Flemish city. This is a cast-iron guarantee for a fascinating program of reputable speakers and an interested audience.

4 YOU ARE ASSURED OF EXTENSIVE PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT.

Associations that choose to hold a conference in a Flemish city are delighted with the service provided by the local convention bureaus. Their experts are happy to offer you professional support in the organization of your conference and put you in touch with local partners and stakeholders. On the following pages, you will also find the contact details of the local congress bureau.

Antw

VIBRANT HUB OF INNOVATION AND CONFERENCES

Antwerp, a dynamic city only 30 minutes from Brussels Airport, is not only a bustling congress destination, it is also a hub for innovation. As the second-largest port in Europe, it serves as a gateway for global trade and commerce, attracting a diverse range of industries. Additionally, Antwerp has established itself as a leading center for healthcare innovation, fostering groundbreaking research and development.

When it comes to hosting conferences, Flanders Meeting and Convention Centre "Room with a Zoo" (see page 49) steals the spotlight with its unique setting in the Antwerp Zoo. Apart from the convention center, Antwerp offers a range of stunning heritage venues that add a touch of grandeur to any event.

With its perfect blend of historic charm and modern infrastructure - and a total of 6,250 hotel rooms - Antwerp promises an enriching and inspiring environment for delegates to connect, learn and engage in this vibrant city.

WHERE HERITAGE MEETS INNOVATION

In the heart of Europe lies a city that combines UNESCO World Heritage with innovation, sustainability and business.

With its compact size and convenient accessibility, Bruges ensures that everything you need is just a stone's throw away. From outstanding conference centers to unique Flanders Heritage Venues – such as Concertgebouw Brugge (see page 36), Bruges Meeting & Convention Centre (see page 37), La Brugeoise (see page 38) and charming hotels with a total of 3,700 rooms, all nestled within its medieval streets, every aspect of your event is within walking distance.

Bruges is also a hub of economic growth in thriving sectors in tourism and culture, healthcare, ICT and mechatronics and the bustling Port of Antwerp-Bruges that offer countless opportunities for collaboration and innovation.

Bruges Triennial 2024 is a captivating showcase of contemporary visual art and architecture. Every three years, the charming streets of the UNESCO World Heritage City of Bruges transform into an open-air gallery, featuring new, site specific works of talented national and international artists and architects.

CITY OF TRANSFORMATIONS

Time and again over the past decades, Genk has succeeded in reinventing itself. From the mining industry, via the automotive market to “smart industry 4.0”. Entrepreneurs and researchers put their expertise to use in the fields of care, energy, creativity and biodiversity. Let this - together with the beautiful heritage and green surroundings - be the backdrop for your event, conference, meeting or team building in Genk. With a total of 420 hotel rooms, 70 meeting rooms and 17 event locations - including 3 with the “Flanders Heritage Venue” label - you are guaranteed a top experience.

Thor Central brought prosperity, urban development and energy to the region starting in the 1920s. Today, the former mining site is the beating heart of the Thor Park site, which houses, among other things, a Flanders Heritage Venue (see page 61).

LABIOMISTA is an evolving artwork by Koen Vanmechelen about the mix of life. This 24-hectare park is an incubator where humans, animals and nature move together. It is an open-air laboratory that invites your delegates to search for a new future together.

At C-Mine, thousands of miners once took the elevator down into the mineshaft to dig up coal 800 meters underground. Today this site - which includes a Flanders Heritage Venue (see page 59) - is an atypical cultural site where architecture and industrial heritage reign supreme.

Ghent

A CONFERENCE CITY ON A HUMAN SCALE

Ghent is a vibrant and accessible conference city at the heart of Flanders, easily reachable from all corners of the world. This compact and sustainable city takes pride in boasting the largest pedestrian area in Belgium, ensuring that all hotels (with a total of 3,000 rooms), venues, cultural attractions and shopping facilities are conveniently within walking distance.

With over 72,000 students studying here, Ghent has earned the title of the largest university town in Flanders. This influx of students infuses the city with a youthful and lively vibe, making it a dynamic place both day and night.

Ghent prides itself on being a hospitable and historically rich city and also has a strong focus on sustainability and innovation. This harmonious blend makes it an ideal destination for conferences of all sizes. In Ghent, you'll find a city that offers everything on a human scale, making it a warm and inviting place to host your next event.

Hasselt

OFFER YOUR GUESTS MORE THAN A CONFERENCE

Hasselt is the perfect location as the hub for your conference. Good taste, nature, music, knowledge, art; Hasselt has it all. It's the perfect base to offer your guests more than a conference.

For years, Hasselt has been known as the "Capital of Good Taste", where fashion, contemporary art and gastronomy are reason enough to make you want to visit the city.

Hasselt is also a meeting point for knowledge, scientific research, start-ups and innovation. The compact city is easily reachable by public transport (a 50-minute direct train ride from Brussels Airport) and once you arrive, everything is within walking distance. All hotels (with a total of 730 rooms), conference venues, restaurants and social activities are all just a very short distance from each other.

The compactness of the city ensures that congress participants will inevitably run into each other. As a result, you get the feeling that the city is one big congress venue!

The Japanese Garden is the largest in Western Europe. It makes a very special location for your welcome reception. Or why not start the day for your delegates with a tai chi session in the morning?

Jump on a bike for a guided team trip to explore the region, such as "Cycle through Water" in Bokrijk or at the Herkenrode Abbey Site. All of these locations are surrounded by beautiful green nature, offering many one-of-a-kind options for your conference meetings.

A visit to the Jenevermuseum puts your senses on edge: you see, hear and experience the passion for the age-old but still very much alive jenever heritage with scent installations, film clips, sound clips and, last but not least, an extensive collection.

ENJOY THE CREATIVE VIBE IN A CITY FULL OF WONDERS

Kortrijk combines the allure of a big city with small-town cosiness. Discover the wide range of unique assets Kortrijk has to offer as a creative venue for events with a long-lasting impact. Our medium-sized city along the river Leie has been part of the UNESCO network of creative cities since 2017.

Kortrijk earned a quality label as a global player in creative design and innovative manufacturing industry. The Digital Arts & Education Degree by Howest College in Kortrijk is ranked highest in the world by professionals both local and abroad.

Kortrijk seamlessly blends a forward-thinking vision of the future with an unforgettable past, creating an unparalleled experience. Your delegates will be impressed by the astonishing heritage buildings, some of which have UNESCO recognition, such as the Beguinage, the Town Hall, the Belfry and the Broel Towers.

At the heart of the historic city center, pedestrians and cyclists rule. Your delegates can reach the entire city center in just 15 minutes without encountering any traffic jams. Despite its cozy size, Kortrijk offers over 40,000 square meters of space for congresses and events, and a total of 2,000 hotel rooms.

Kortrijk benefits from a central location in Flanders with easy access by train, car as well as airplane. It will take you only a 40 (Lille) or 60 minutes (Brussels) drive by car to get from the airport to the city centre.

SUGGESTIONS FOR AN UNFORGETTABLE SOCIAL PROGRAM IN KORTRIJK

For centuries, the Leie River has brought prosperity and creativity to the city of Kortrijk. Today, the river connects many surprising places created by insightful and top-notch architectural city planning. An extensive variety of shops and businesses highlight the city's creative character.

If you're looking for excellent fine dining options for your delegates, you're in luck! The city boasts numerous restaurants with excellent Gault & Millau ratings.

The Belfry - UNESCO World Heritage - is a medieval bell tower located in the historical centre. In Church of Our Lady, built in the 13th century, your delegates will not only discover a masterpiece by Anthony Van Dyck, they can also visit the museum dedicated to the great battle of 1302, the victory of Flanders over France.

Leuven

THE PERFECT BLEND OF INNOVATION AND CULTURE

The dynamic city of Leuven is home to Europe's most innovative university. KU Leuven boasts six centuries of groundbreaking research and top-tier education. Located centrally in Europe, it is a mere 15 minutes from Brussels National Airport, offering excellent accessibility by car or public transport.

Leuven stands as a prime region for health, high-tech and creativity, with state-of-the-art hospitals, thriving research-industry collaborations and a blossoming creative ecosystem. As one of Europe's most innovative and sustainable cities, it is renowned for hosting green events.

Your delegates immerse themselves in a vibrant student city, with over 100,000 inhabitants and a whopping 57,000 students, creating a lively and spirited atmosphere. The rich beer culture with 240 pubs adds to the city's allure. Its centuries-old cultural heritage is another special asset that makes Leuven an excellent choice for your next conference. The city has a total of 1,100 hotel rooms available for your delegates.

SUGGESTIONS FOR AN UNFORGETTABLE SOCIAL PROGRAM IN LEUVEN

Your delegates will definitely be impressed by Leuven's Grand-Place. There, they can admire the most beautiful town hall façade in the world. In St. Peter's Church - a highlight of Brabant High Gothic - hangs the Last Supper, a masterpiece by Dieric Bouts.

Park Abbey - a vibrant heritage site in the midst of lush greenery - is one of the best-preserved abbeys in Europe. Also be sure to visit the Great Beguinage, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Leuven is the world capital of beer. During the interactive tour of Stella Artois, your delegates will see the brewery in full action and then enjoy a freshly tapped Stella afterward. Microbrewery De Coureur is also well worth a visit.

Mechelen

A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE GEM WELCOMES YOUR CONFERENCE

Due to its central location – halfway between Antwerp and Brussels – this city on the river Dyle is an excellent base for meetings and conferences. It takes just 11 minutes to get to the city from Brussels National Airport. And it's only a short drive from Belgium's neighbouring countries.

Here, old and new live in harmony. Just like work and pleasure. Forget dull conferences and meetings. Invite your delegates for an original team building activity in one of the most beautiful libraries in the world (the Predikheren, see page 52), in the former brewery of Lamot (see page 53) or in Martin's Patershof, a converted church with stunning architectural features. Let them sleep in a former church or hospital, in a brewery, in a spa hotel that was once a fish smokery and cigarette factory, in what used to be the most popular swimming pool in the city or in one of the 750 other hotel rooms the city provides for your delegations.

How about exploring Mechelen before or after your event? Travel back in time as you walk through narrow streets and past historic buildings. Mechelen is home to an amazing 336 listed buildings and monuments, including eight gothic and baroque churches that were built between the 14th and the 17th century. As such, it is the Flemish city with the largest number of monuments on the UNESCO World Heritage list. Not surprising, when you know that during the Burgundian period (late 15th, early 16th century), Mechelen was the capital of the Netherlands.

Are your delegates getting hungry? They will certainly enjoy the taste of Mechelen in the many charming pubs and restaurants, bustling squares and lively café terraces.

The Predikheren Public Library, located in a former monastery, is Mechelen's cultural hotspot. The library is one of the five most beautiful in the world.

One of the most amazing discoveries during your stroll through the city: the 16th century houses on the Haverwerf, considered by many as the most beautiful facades in Flanders.

Ostend

THE CONGRESS CITY BY THE SEA

With Ostend, you combine the best of both worlds. You will find not only state-of-the-art conference and meeting facilities, but also the sea and the best that nature has to offer.

It is well known that sea air inspires. Big names such as James Ensor and Marvin Gaye found their inspiration in Ostend. With a conference in Ostend, you will experience for yourself how the sea can be a source of inspiration.

Your delegates are welcome in two Flanders Heritage Venues right in the city center: Kursaal Ostend (see page 34) and De Grote Post (see page 35). All hotels (with a total of 2,000 rooms), restaurants and other attractions are within walking distance.

Ostend is also a very accessible city. There are no fewer than three airports nearby: Ostend itself, Lille and Brussels National. From the local train station, you can be at your conference venue within a 15-minute walk.

That's how your association builds its legacy. And Flanders is happy to put its shoulder to the wheel. Our region gladly rolls out the red carpet for your conference.

We do this with a unique service in which VISITFLANDERS Convention Bureau defines and develops the legacy of your conference together with you. In doing so, we also call upon the expertise of the Legacy Makers: renowned scientists, entrepreneurs and policy makers from Flanders who are happy to share their insights with you.

Flanders offers this service free of charge when you organize your conference in one of the Flemish cities.

This legacy service is carried out according to a specially developed methodology, consisting of four phases:

PHASE 1

what sustainable impact do you want to realize with your conference?

PHASE 2

which parties in government, education, business and residents can help support your conference and your legacy?

PHASE 3

how do you tell the story of your conference and the impact you want to create?

PHASE 4

what parameters demonstrate that your congress achieves its sustainable goals?

CREATING EXTRAORDINARY EVENTS THROUGH THE POWER OF CONTEXT

SAM VERSELE,
venue expert

This article is based on a lecture given by Sam Versele at the Legacy Makers Event on June 15, 2023. During these Legacy Makers Events, leading researchers, entrepreneurs and policy makers from Flanders come together to see how they can help support the legacy of your conference. You can read more about this service, which Flanders offers free of charge to your association, on the previous page.

It's incredible to witness the diverse range of emotions and connections that places can evoke within all of us. These shared experiences remind us of the profound impact that context can have on our perceptions, our decisions and our sense of purpose.

ORGANIZING YOUR CONFERENCE IN THE RIGHT CONTEXT CAN HAVE A PROFOUND IMPACT ON ITS OUTCOMES.

Research conducted by Dr. Robert Cialdini - a renowned social psychologist - reveals fascinating insights into the power of context. When people are surrounded by a compelling environment that resonates with their goals and values, they become more engaged, inspired and inclined to make sound decisions.

When participants step into a Flanders Heritage Venue, they are transported to a place where history, culture and innovation converge. These venues, with their unique and heritage-based settings, offer an unparalleled backdrop for your international conference or event.

Exposure to historic and heritage elements triggers positive emotions and stimulates creative thinking.

RESEARCH HIGHLIGHTS THE ADVANTAGES OF ORGANIZING EVENTS IN SUCH REMARKABLE VENUES.

Scientific facts and figures show that your delegates' cognitive abilities are enhanced when they are exposed to aesthetically pleasing and inspiring surroundings.

Studies conducted by Dr. Joye, a leading expert in environmental psychology, indicate that exposure to historic and heritage elements triggers positive emotions and stimulates creative thinking. By immersing your delegates in the rich heritage of Flanders, you ignite their imagination and foster an environment conducive to innovation and problem-solving.

Much attention is also paid to sustainability, delivering an unprecedented experience, before, during and after the event.

Furthermore, when participants feel a strong emotional connection to their surroundings, their level of engagement skyrockets. Research by Professor Robin Dunbar, an evolutionary psychologist, proved that shared experiences in inspiring environments strengthen social bonds and enhance cooperation. By organizing your conference in a Flanders Heritage Venue, you create a sense of shared history, enabling delegates to forge meaningful connections and collaborate more effectively.

THE NETWORK OF FLANDERS HERITAGE VENUES INCLUDES 31 EXTRAORDINARY VENUES.

Each of these venues meets the most stringent requirements in quality, sustainability, experience and digital innovation. Each location is carefully selected to offer a truly unforgettable experience. From majestic castles to converted industrial spaces, Flanders Heritage Venues encompass the diversity of our region's heritage.

These venues serve as a testament to our rich past while embracing the future. We do that by monitoring, developing and redefining international quality standards. At the same time, we ensure that every venue respects its visitors, but also its residents, entrepreneurs and the place itself. Much attention is also paid to sustainability, delivering an unprecedented experience, before, during and after the event.

SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY TO CREATE TOMORROW'S HERITAGE.

At VISITFLANDERS Convention Bureau, we believe that the true value of organizing your conference in a Flanders Heritage Venue lies in the opportunity to create tomorrow's heritage. By bringing together academics, industry leaders and visionaries in these extraordinary settings, your association amplifies the impact of their work. You pave the way for groundbreaking ideas and decisions that will shape the future. Not only of your field or discipline, but also of the society in which your association operates.

The slogan "Create Tomorrow's Heritage" embodies the mission your association and Flanders share: to leave a lasting legacy through the organization of meaningful conferences and events. It emphasizes our mutual commitment to fostering an environment that transcends the present, inspiring innovation and progress for generations to come.

Context setting has an undeniable impact on the success of your conference. By welcoming your delegates to a Flanders Heritage Venue, you harness the power of historic significance, captivating surroundings and shared experiences. You provide your participants with an environment that stimulates engagement, inspiration and wise decision-making.
